RESEARCH AND SCHOLARSHIP

We believe that a strong,
high-performing university

The University of Suffolk, at the heart of the Waterfront in Ipswich, is based within one of the UK's fastest growing regional economies. As the only University in Suffolk, we play a vital role in the community and economic development.

Through collaboration with businesses and stakeholders, we will address the challenges that face our people and communities within Ipswich, Suffolk and beyond. The goal of this collaboration is to transform local productivity and workforce development.

Through education, knowledge exchange, innovation and enterprise, our graduates will be entrepreneurial and innovative, equipped with the skills and experience to create their own futures and make a positive contribution and impact on society.

By 2030 we will:

- › Transform local productivity and targeted sectors through skills development, business and job creation, work-based learning, student
